

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2010

If 300 Bedans switch from red meat to a vegetarian diet 1 day per week, in a year we'll avert the emissions produced by driving a car from New York to San Francisco and back twice.

- Senior lockers will be cleaned & sprayed immediately after school today. All senior lockers must be emptied & cleaned out; items left behind will be disposed of. Please leave lockers open after you empty them. If you need bags see housekeeping.
- The tutoring room is not open today; Mrs. Williams is out of the building. Students remain in study hall.
- Juniors, remember to turn in your orange sheets – classes are scheduled first come, first serve.
- The mandatory meeting for all softball players, parents and coaches will be at 6pm on Wednesday.
- Freshman Girls' basketball players meeting after school tomorrow.
- Turnabout guest forms are available in the school office for students bringing a guest from another school.
- McKlaire Harrison & Dominic Fanti please report to the school office before & after Rotary Wednesday.
- Chaplain planners. Meet tomorrow before school at 7:15 or after school at 2:45 in Mrs. Tonozzi's classroom. Come to whatever session works. We'll be planning Lenten activities.
- If interested in being part of the passion play put on by Eagle Rock Church, see Fr. Ronald for further information.
- Washington Respect Life Marchers. If you still owe money, see Fr. Ronald today.
- Forms due today for those who wish to be Eucharistic ministers next year.
- If you have access to Rosetta Stone Spanish Level I, see Fr. Ronald.
- Rachel Struna please see Fr. Dominic during homeroom today.
- Thanks to the players who braved the elements Saturday to compete in the Streater Rotary Scholastic Bowl tournament. Special congratulations to the three J-V players, Jack Faletti, Natalie Szczepaniak and Steven Zhang who proved they could hold their own with some top varsity competition.
- The City of Peru is starting a Youth City Council for high school students. Freshmen thru Juniors that are interested in government or law please come to the school office if you would like more information.
- Congratulations to the Bruin Wrestlers who placed in the Eureka Regional tournament on Saturday. Dan Rucinski first place at 160 pounds. Dave Young second place at 135 pounds. Steve Puhr third place at 152 pounds. Tim Steinz fourth place at 145 pounds. Nick Puhr fourth place at 130 pounds. Dan Rucinski, Dave Young and Steve Puhr will compete this weekend at the Sectional Tournament.

MEETINGS

➤