TWO ST. BEDE ACADEMY STUDENTS NAMED NATIONAL MERIT SEMIFINALISTS

Saint Bede Academy is proud to announce that seniors Alyssa Heitz, daughter of Kevin and Cheryl Heitz of Utica, and Benjamin Johll, son of Matthew and Sally Johll of Granville, have been named semifinalists in the 66th annual National Merit Scholarship Program.

These academically talented St. Bede seniors will continue in the competition for one of 7,600 National Merit Scholarships worth more than $30 million that will be offered next spring. Alyssa and Benjamin were among the 1.5 million students across the country that took the PSAT in their junior year and earned scores high enough to qualify as semifinalists.

To vie for a finalist slot, Alyssa and Benjamin will need to write an essay, receive a recommendation from a high school official, and submit a detailed scholarship application that details their academic record; including extracurricular and volunteer activities, leadership abilities, employment record, and awards received.

We at, Saint Bede Academy, want to congratulate all our representatives on their accomplishments and wish them well on their future endeavors.
